Grow at the SAUGERTIES PUBLIC LIBRARY!

Your yes vote on Wednesday, May 7th will mean a larger, stronger and more robust Saugerties Public Library. Not only will the building grow but so will the horizons of everyone in Saugerties. We'll have a 21st century facility rooted in the tradition of the Carnegie Library.

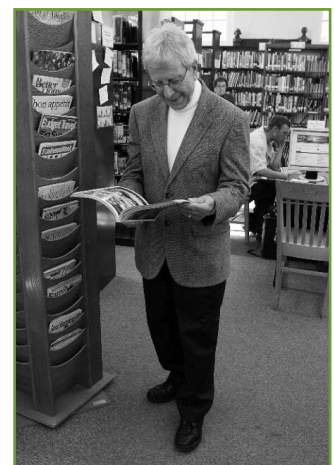

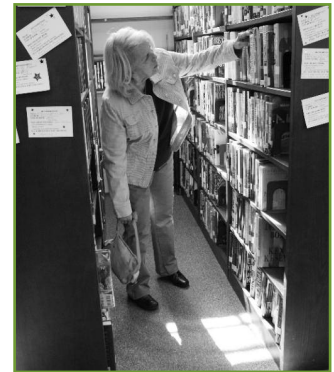

New Building Street Level Entrance Current Building

New Building Street Level Entrance Current Building

- The original Carnegie Building will be renovated and an addition of approximately 8,000 sq. ft. will be added to the right of the building.
- Shelf and stack space expanded for more books, DVDs, CDs and audio books
- Dedicated children's story time space and teen room
- Space for new and popular collections will increase 300 percent
- Comfortable seating and work space throughout
- Wireless access and 13 more public computers
- Street-level entrance with elevator to take you to either of the library's fully accessible floors

All this growth for just $67/year over 25 years on a home in Saugerties assessed at $200,000.

Don't let this opportunity to grow pass us by. Vote Yes on the Library's building referendum.

Wednesday, May 7th. Polls open at the Library, Noon to 9 p.m.
